IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

C.M.D, etc., et al.
v.
FACEBOOK, INC.,
Plaintiffs,
Defendant.

No. C 12-1216 RS

ORDER RE POTENTIAL STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

Subsequent to the time the pending motion to dismiss in this action was taken under submission, an order issued preliminarily approving a settlement in Fraley v. Facebook, C 11-01726 RS. In connection with seeking leave to intervene in Fraley, plaintiffs represented that a prior version of a settlement agreement in Fraley would, if approved and consummated, “wipe out all” of the claims in this action. Plaintiffs now contend that the scope of the proposed release in Fraley is unclear, and they object to Facebook’s suggestion that this action be stayed pending the final approval hearing in Fraley.

While the propriety of final approval of the Fraley settlement is yet to be determined, there is a substantial likelihood that further proceedings in that matter will have an impact here. Even assuming the Fraley settlement, if approved, would not entirely dispose of this action, it conceivably will narrow the claims these plaintiffs here can pursue, thereby requiring further amendment of the 1 complaint. At a minimum, it appears likely that further briefing regarding the impact of Fraley on

2 the claims here may become necessary.

3 Plaintiffs understandably complain that Facebook has not formally moved for a stay in this
4 action and should not be able to obtain one merely by proposing it in a Case Management
5 Conference Statement. Nevertheless, proceeding with a fully-noticed stay motion at this juncture
6 would not serve judicial efficiency. Accordingly, within 20 days of the date of this order, plaintiffs
7 may file a brief setting forth any arguments they may have as to why this action should not be
8 stayed pending a ruling on final settlement approval in Fraley, and/or any alternative proposals for 9 addressing the potential effect of the Fraley proceedings on the pending motion to dismiss and the 10 balance of this litigation. Within seven days thereafter, Facebook may file a response. The Case
11 Management Conference set for December 20, 2012 is continued to February 14, 2013 at 10:00 a.m.
